ORDER

14-cv-6992 (SLT) (ST)

TOWNES, United States District Judge,

Defendants City of New York et al. moved for a pre-motion conference to discuss their anticipated motion for partial summary judgment on Plaintiff's Monell and excessive detention claims. (Doc. 53). Plaintiff filed a response opposing that motion, contending that discovery on relevant topics remained open, which the parties disputed in subsequent letters to the Court and briefs surrounding a Motion to Compel addressed to Magistrate Judge Tiscione. (Docs. 54-61). On December 12, 2016, Judge Tiscione resolved the parties' dispute and the motion to compel, and Plaintiffs' opposition to Defendants' request therefore appears to be moot. (See Doc. 62). The Court, having carefully considered the submissions, finds that a pre-motion conference would not materially assist the Court at this time. Accordingly, the Court denies Defendants' request for a pre-motion conference and grants Defendants leave to move for summary judgment. The parties are directed to agree upon and file a proposed schedule by Friday, January 20, 2017.

SO ORDERED.
